"TIME IN A BOTTLE"

If I could save time in a bottle,
The first thing that I'd like to do
Is to save every day till eternity passes away.
Just to spend them with you.

If I could make days last forever,
If words could make wishes come true,
I'd save every day like a treasure and then,
Again, I would spend them with you.

But there never seems to be enough time
To do the things you want to do
Once you find them . . .
I've looked around enough to know
That you're the one I want to go
Through Time with . . .

If I had a box just for wishes
And dreams that would never come true,
The box would be empty, except for the memory
Of how they were answered by you.

But there never seems to be enough time
To do the things you want to do
Once you find them . . .
I've looked around enough to know
That you're the one I want to go
Through Time with . . .

WE PROUDLY DEDICATE THE 1974 PETRARCHAN TO — DONALD R. CASTLE

The Yearbook Staff, by a unanimous vote, chose to dedicate the 1974 Petrarchan to Mr. Donald R. Castle. He always put his students first; to Mr. Castle, the learning experience is a priceless gift. He always taught and aided his students in a number of areas, with a dedication and wit that is difficult to find these days. Despite his many activities, he was never too busy to care.

This book is for "The Bear"—to whom we are all grateful.

To some, he was a grueling wrestling coach a demanding English teacher a Pepsi freak in the Keyhole
a concerned moderator
But to all, he was a great influence and one heck of a friend.

Our Administration . . . Working for the Students

Mrs. Morahan assumed the task of secretary and administrative assistant.

Msgr. Edward Dunn showed concern for the students by serving as principal. Monsignor received his M.A. & S.T.L. from Catholic University of America.

Administrative accountant, Sr. Angela, graduated from DePaul University with an M.Ed. degree.

Guiding Hands . . .

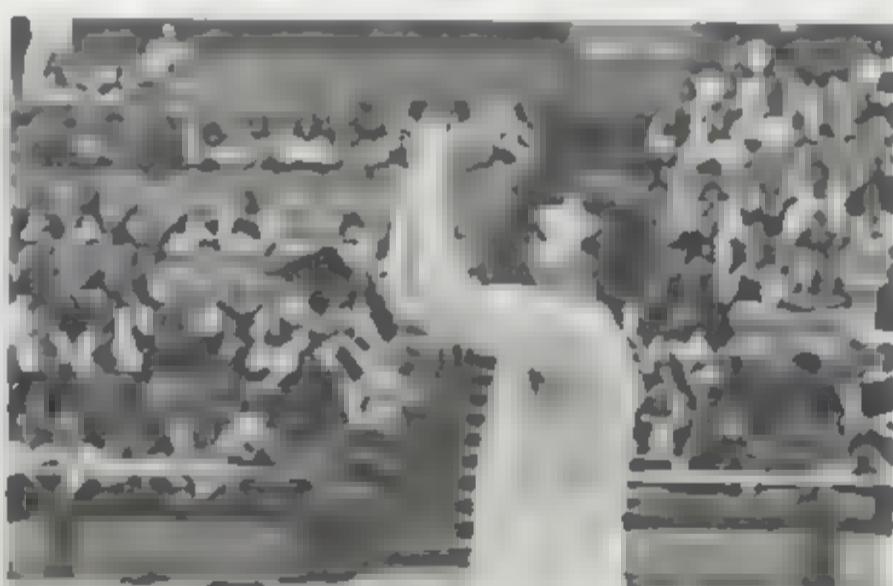

The "Dynamic Duo" of Mr. & Mrs. Miller controlled the study halls and kept rowdy students in line.

Sr. Tarcisius and Sr. Soana, our librarians, both graduated from DePaul University, with M.A. degrees.

Mr. Lou Novak graduated from Xavier University with an M.Ed. degree, and put his talents to use by serving as Guidance Counsellor, Academic Challenge Team coach, National Honor Society Advisor, and Varsity Basketball Scout.

Creating Better Communications

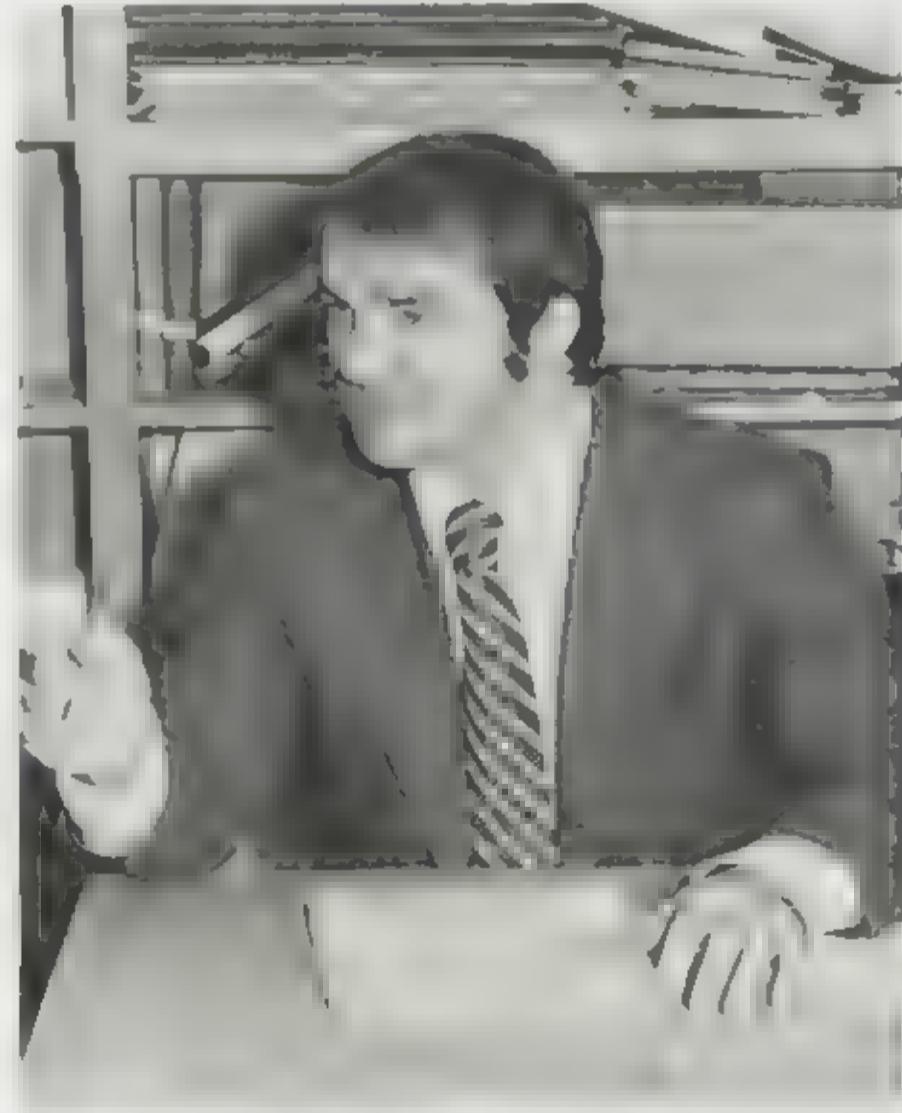

College of St. Francis was the site where Mrs. Kmetz earned her A.B. The freshmen had Mrs. Kmetz for English and she taught creative writing as well. She also spent time being Freshmen Class moderator.

Mrs. Au spent a great deal of time grading those sophomore English papers.

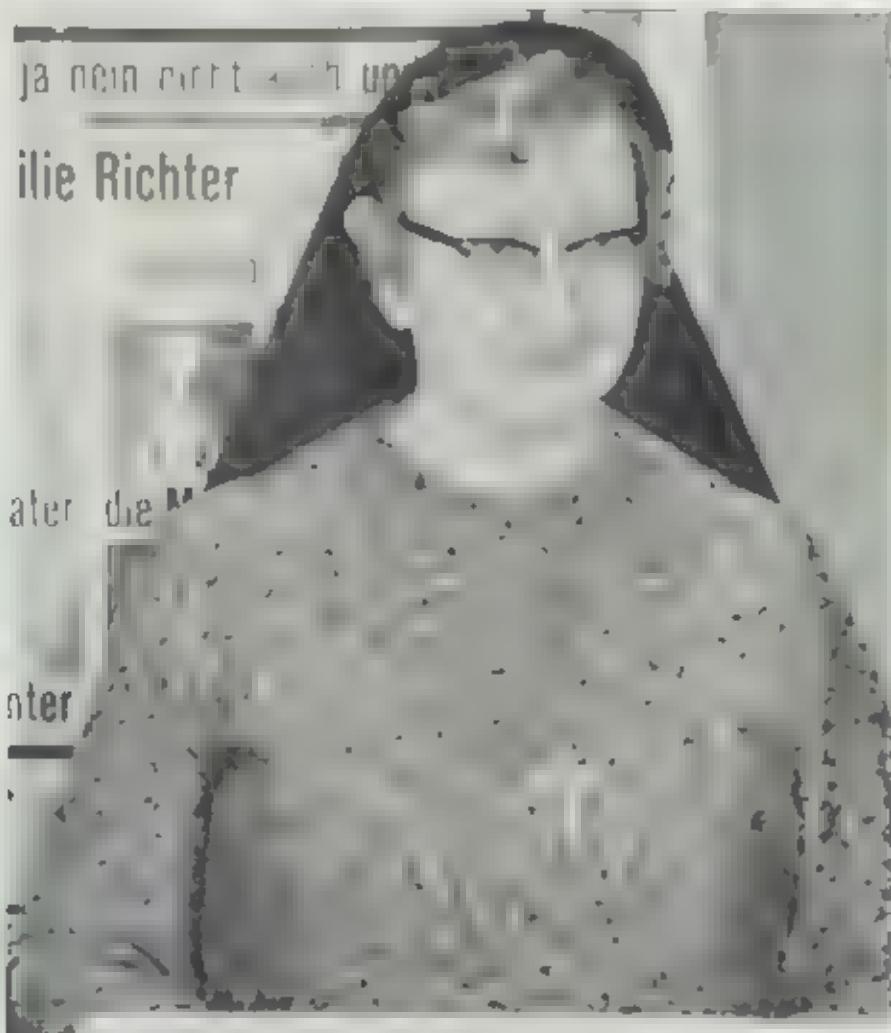

Mrs. Judith Castle works hard over some papers. Mrs. Castle was kept busy with senior English, drama, speech and acting as theatrical director. Mrs. Castle attended Heidelberg College where she received her A.B.

Mr. Don Castle received his A.B. from Akron University. Mr. Castle (The BEAR) taught English 4 publications (editing The Key News & the Petrarchan), great books, and in his spare time was senior class advisor.

Variety of Languages Adds Spice

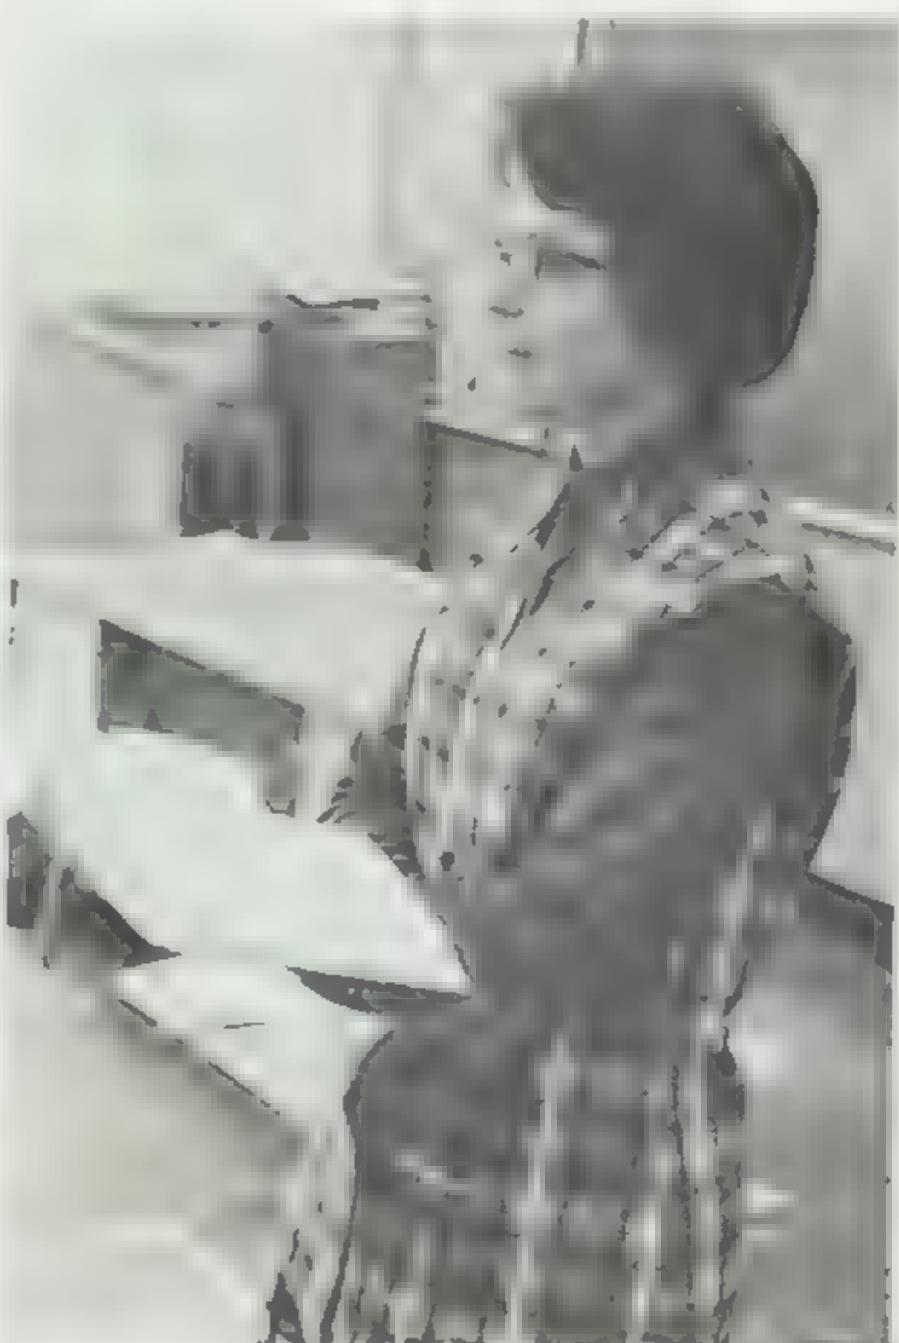

From DePaul University, Sr. Janice merited her M.A., which she put to good use during her German classes.

Mr. Baloy, who holds a B.A. from Muskingum College, spent his time perfecting the Spanish aspect of SPH.

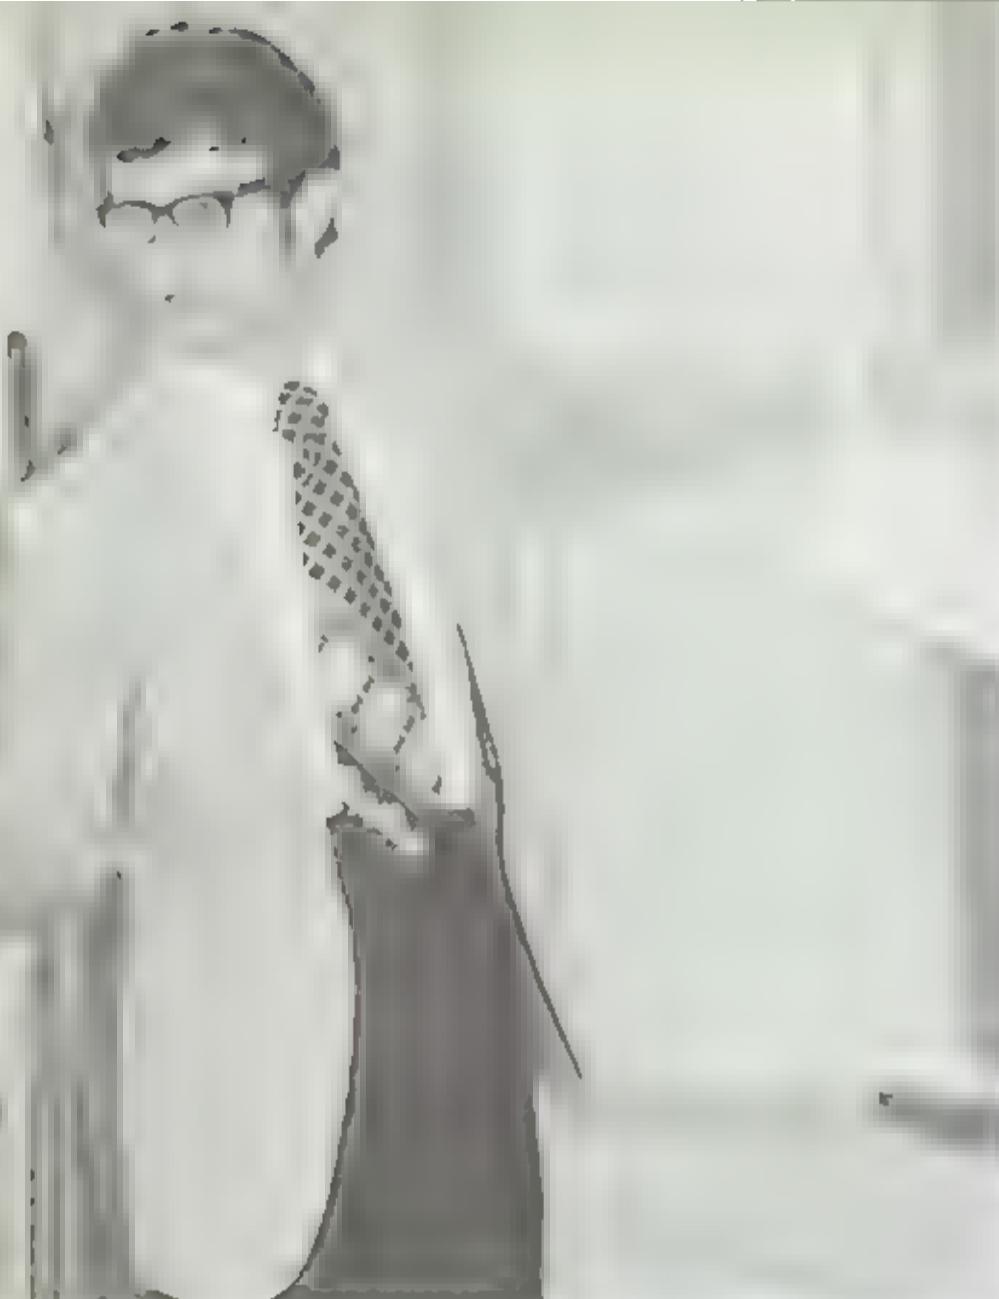

Mrs. Maurer, who also instructed students in French, earned her B.S. from Bowling Green State University.

Sr. Patricia devoted her time to teaching French 1, 3, & 4. She received her M.A. from Ohio State.

It All Adds Up!

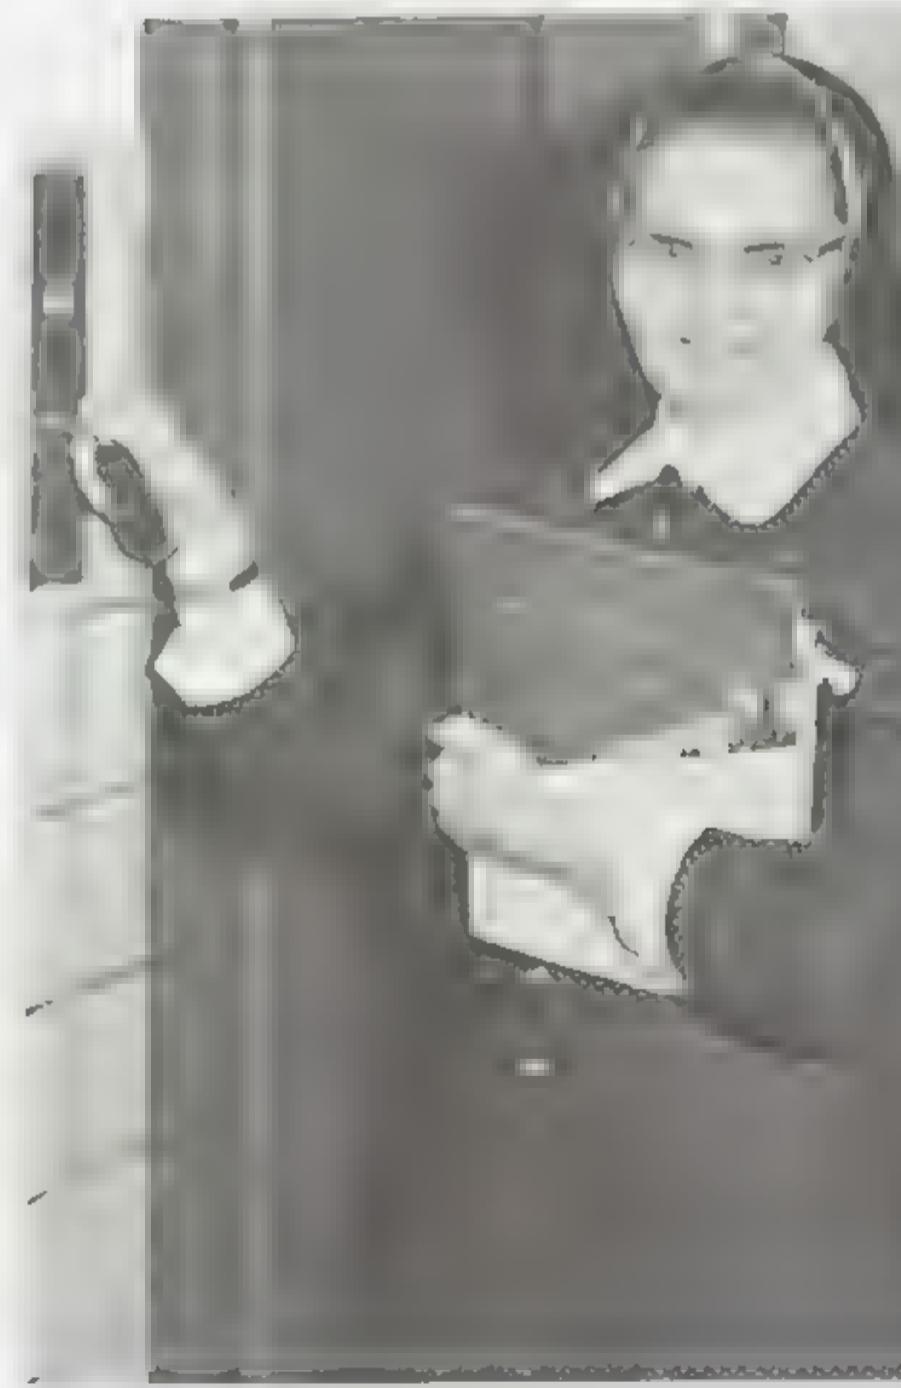

Mr. Straney kept Algebra 2 and Advanced Math students on their toes. He studied at Bowling Green State University, where he received his M.Ed. He also served as Sophomore Moderator this year.

Miss Laibaugh received her B.S. from the University of Akron. She taught Geometry, Typing I., and Bookkeeping.

"Tim Terrific" passes out free autographs at Prom.

Also a ding student here at St. Peter's with their freshman math was Sr. Clemens, who earned her M.A. from the College of St. Francis.

They Mold Future Einsteins

Sr. Bernard Marie taught courses in Chemistry & Physics. She graduated from the University of Notre Dame with an M.S.

Also specializing in the science field was Mr. Maurer who conducted classes in both General & Advanced Biology. He received his B.S. from Kent State University.

A graduate of Ohio State with an E.E., Mr. Birch taught Mechanical Drawing which gave many students a good background for a job.

Sister DeChanta was Alumni Coordinator.

Rise of Cultural Arts

Art flourished here at St. Peter's because of the hard work of Sr. DePadua. Sister taught numerous art courses with her background from Catholic University of America where she earned her M.F.A.

Sr. Linda also aided the development of art by lending her talent for Sewing to the student body. Sister also conducted a course entitled Relationships which dealt with the human aspect of our society. Sr. Linda attended Mundelein College where she earned her B.A.

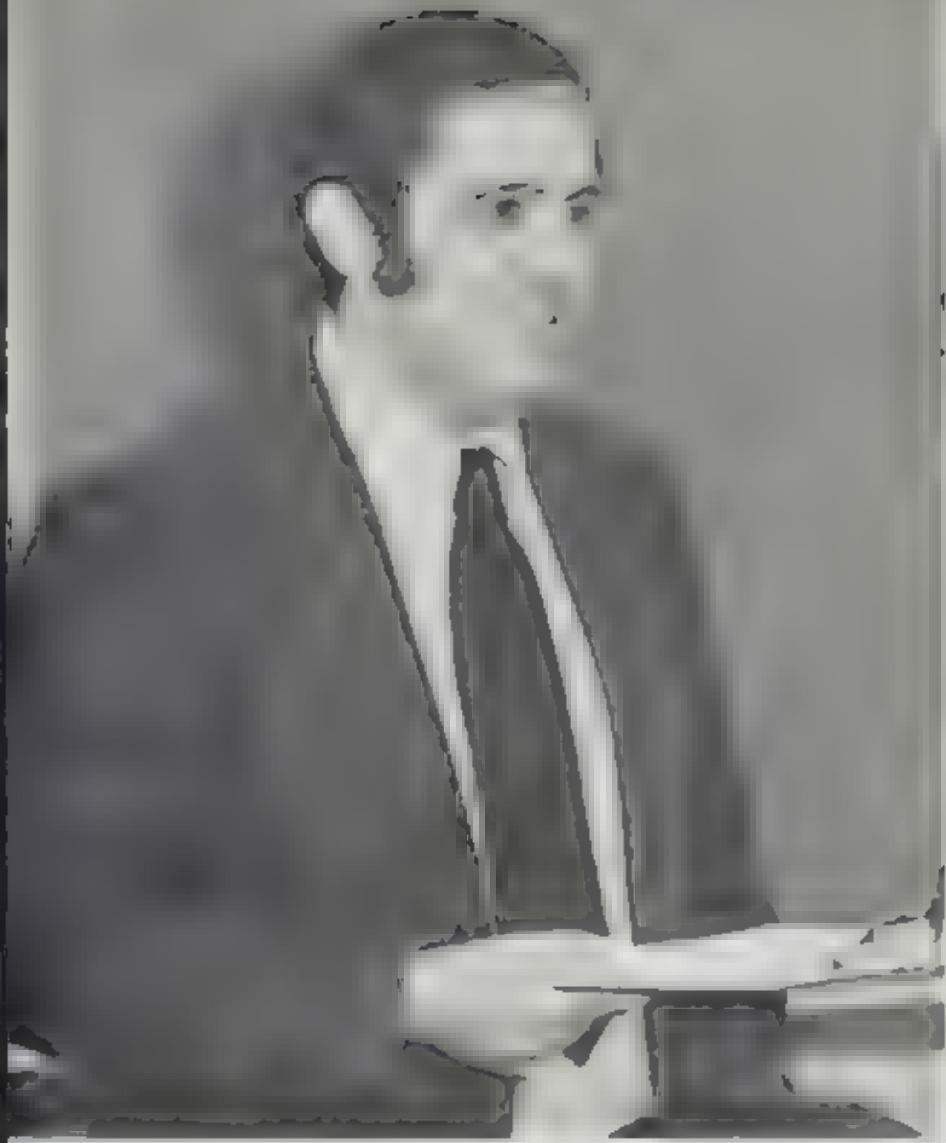

Heidelberg College is the site where Mrs. Judith Castle received her A.B. She taught Drama, English 3 and Speech. A great deal of her time was devoted to the theatrical side of St. Peter's, including the Variety Show, and the school play "You Can't Take It With You."

Mrs. Radcliff earned her A.B. from Ashland College. She taught Music Appreciation & moderated Glee Club.

Social Studies, Office Skills

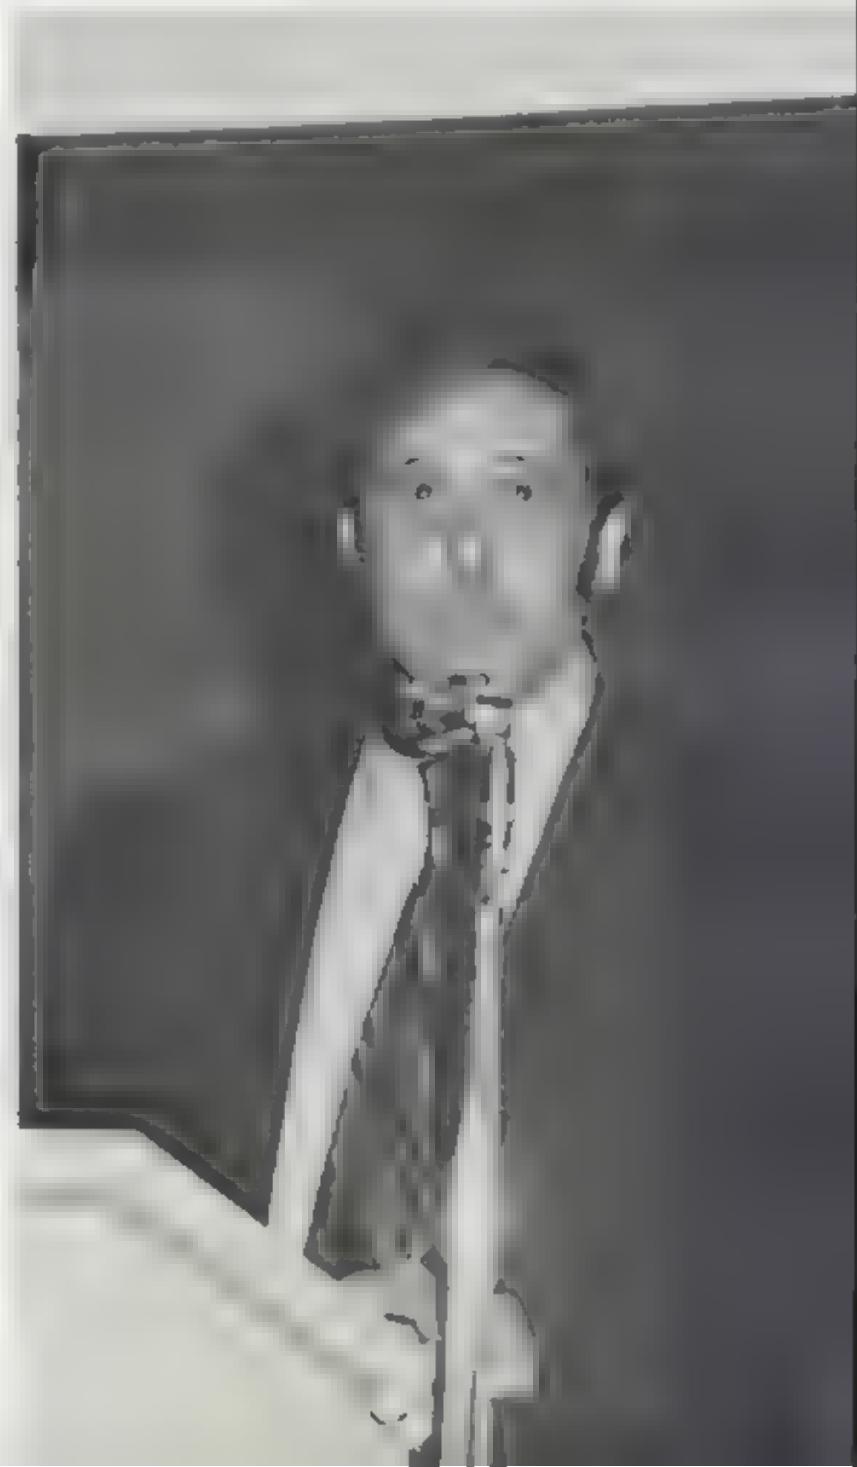

American History and Driver's Education were both under the supervision of Mr. Barbo, a graduate of Salem College with an A.B. (When teaching, he often devoted more than "5 minutes on it"!)

Government, Sociology & Economics, and World History were all directed by Mr. Breitinger. He received his B.S. from Ashland College.

Sr. Rosalie's first year here found her teaching Typing 1 & 2, Steno 1 & 2, and Office Practice. Marquette University was the site where Sr. Rosalie earned her M.A. degree.

Special People Who Listen

Fr. Thomas conducted Sophomore & Senior Ethics classes. He received his M.A. from Fordham University.

Also providing religious education was Fr. Kennedy, who held classes with the juniors. He studied at Catholic Theological University and was accredited an M. Div. degree.

The Athenaeum of Ohio is the site where Fr. Ceranowski received his M.A. He taught junior courses.

Sr. Alma Jo is quite well versed in her field of Theology. She holds an M.A. & M.R.E. from DePaul University & Mundelein College. She conducted Ethics 1 & 4.

Mrs. Roesser taught Physical Education and Health to freshmen and sophomore girls. She graduated from Kent State University with a B.S.

Mr. Frye, our Athletic Director, attended the University of Southern California where he earned his B.S. Mr. Frye conducted classes in Health and Physical Education.

Four creative, concerned officers were the pride of the senior class. After overcoming financial difficulties, they learned to work successfully as a unit. Representing their classmates well, they went on to organize such activities as Prom, May Crowning, Graduation, Honors Assembly, Baccalaureate and a variety of pleasant activities strewn throughout the year. They truly helped achieve the unity within their class.

The seniors, the real leaders of the school, realized the importance of competent, confident leaders. That is undoubtedly why they chose Mary Massa as President and backed her up with such a hard-working staff. Other officers were: Mike Kurtz, Vice-President; Julie Reese, Secretary; and Bob Salmen, Treasurer. Mr. Castle, who served as senior class moderator, proved to be a continual source of encouragement and patience.

Homecoming festivities began with the announcement that Miss Patti Wessling would reign as Queen, with Miss Mary Rozic acting as Senior Attendant. Patti chose Tom Eaton as her escort, and the entire court decided upon "The Heart Hath Its Own Memory" as their theme. After a traditional Homecoming game victory, the action moved to The Hallmark, where the dance was held. The many couples who attended agreed that the setting, and the night itself, was truly one to remember.

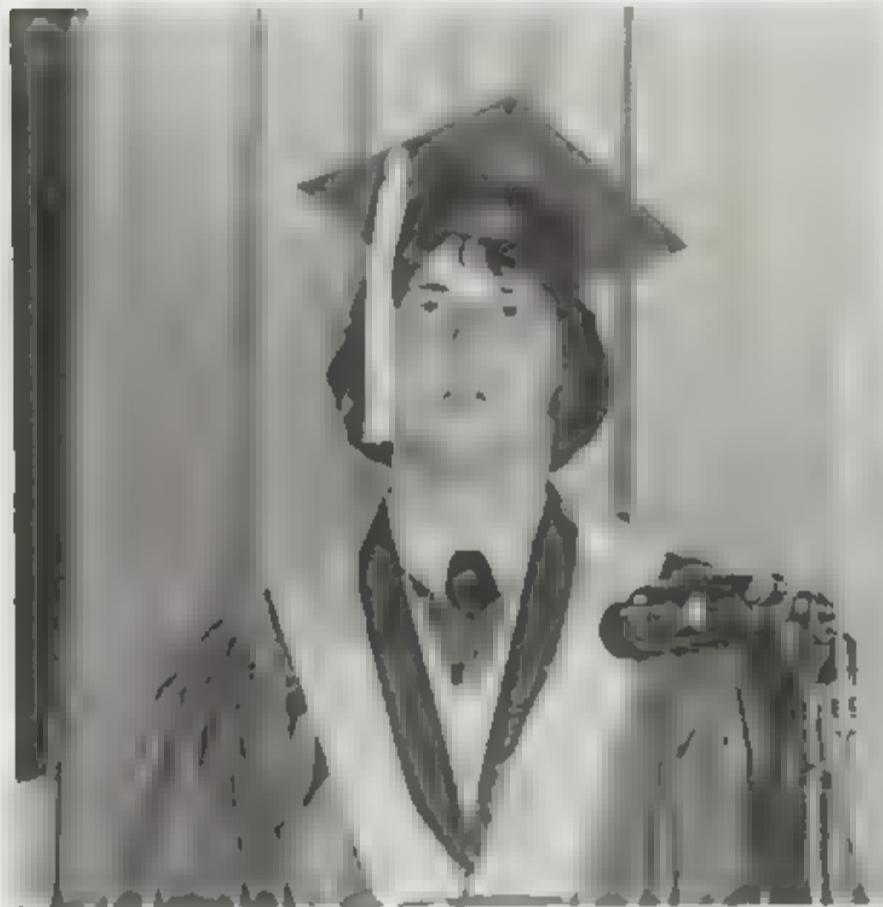

Our Memories Alone

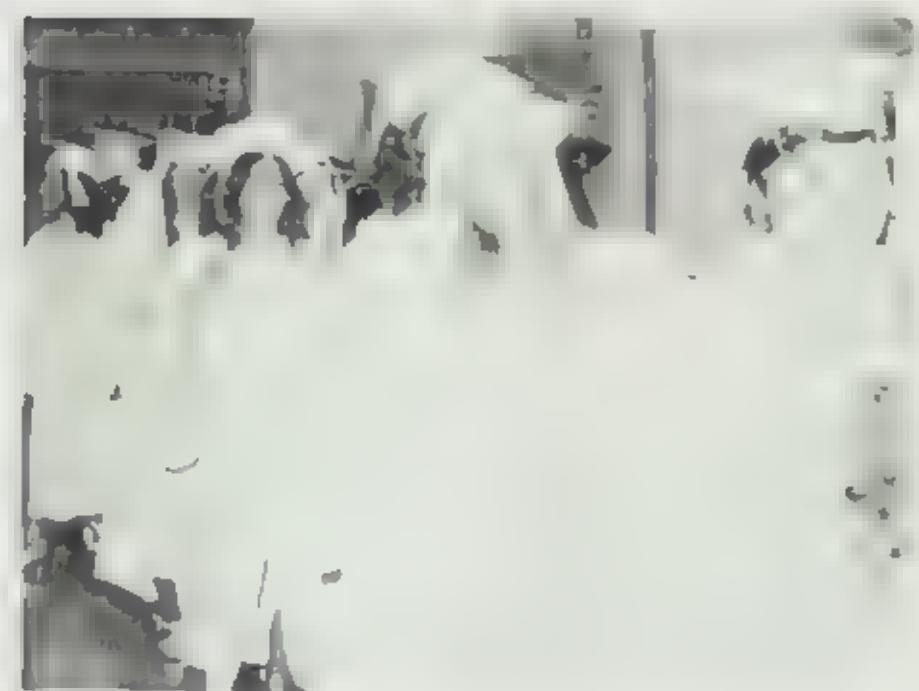

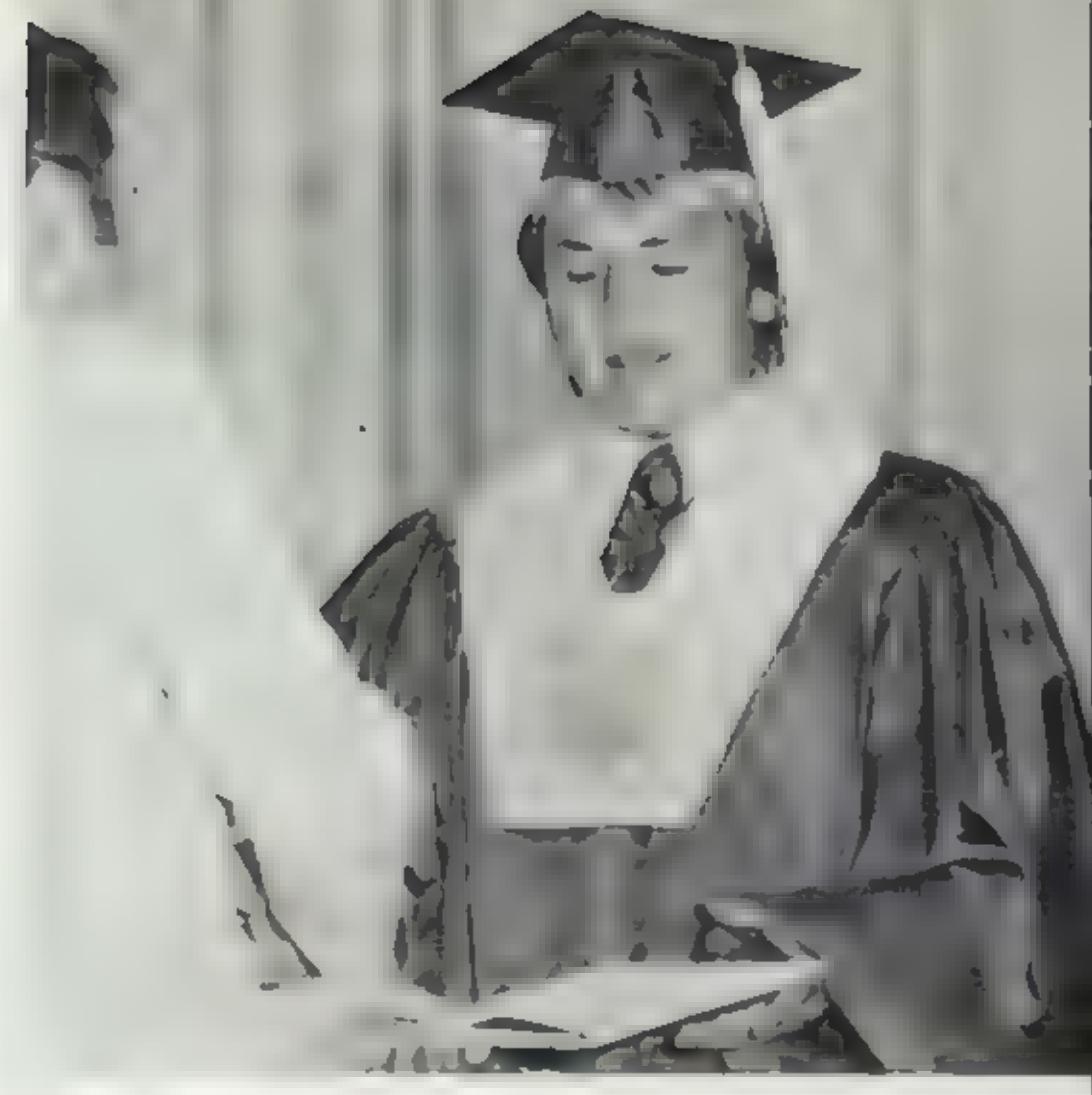

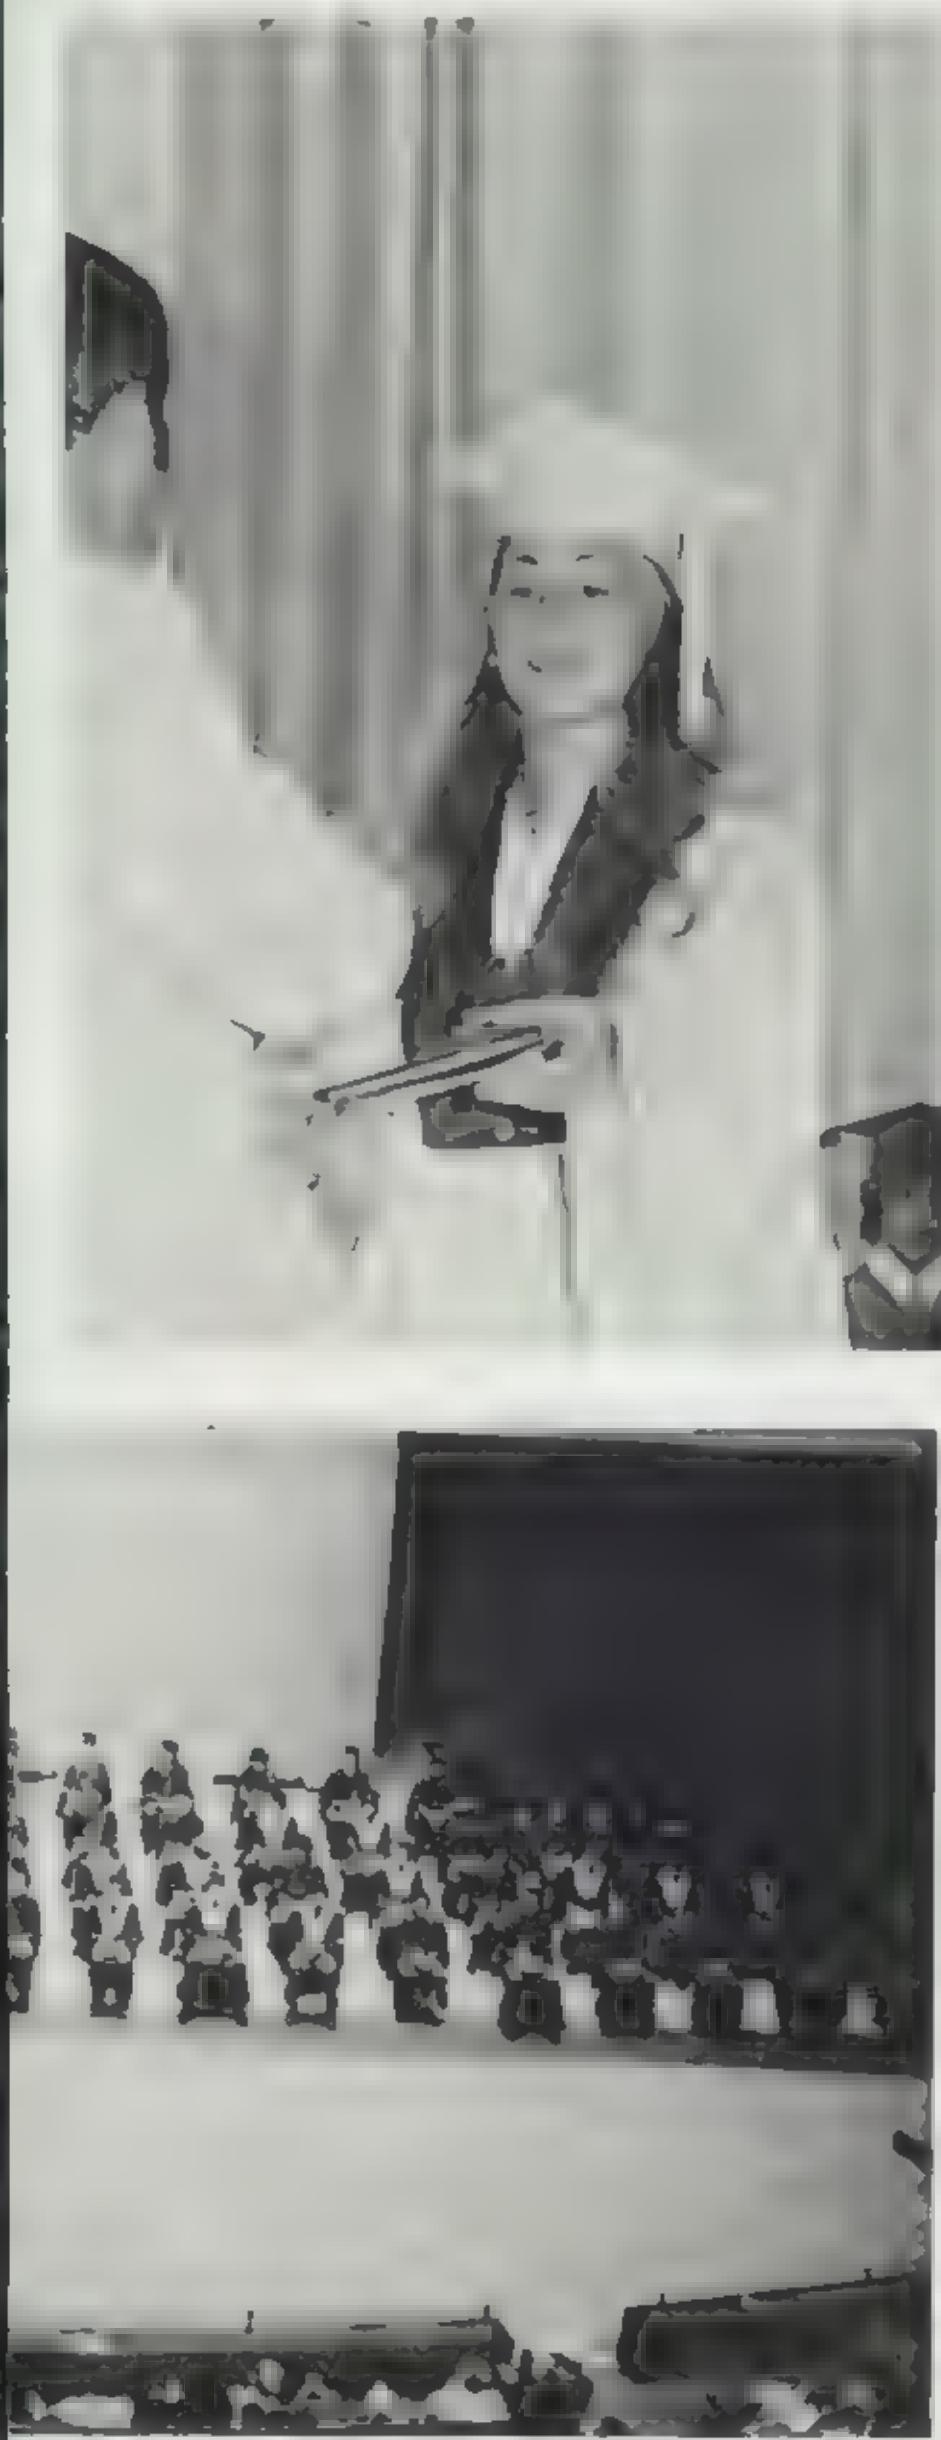

June 2, 1974, was a day that will long be remembered by the 86 members of the senior class. Valedictorian Rod Jordan and Salutatorian Cindy Powell gave their speeches with an emphasis on a new beginning, rather than an end, to our friendships. Speeches by Father Thomas and Monsignor Dunn supplemented the reflective, nearly somber mood.

The strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" finally echoed away, as did the footsteps of the Class of '74; but the impressions they have made, and have yet to make, will live forever, in the minds of those whose lives they have touched.

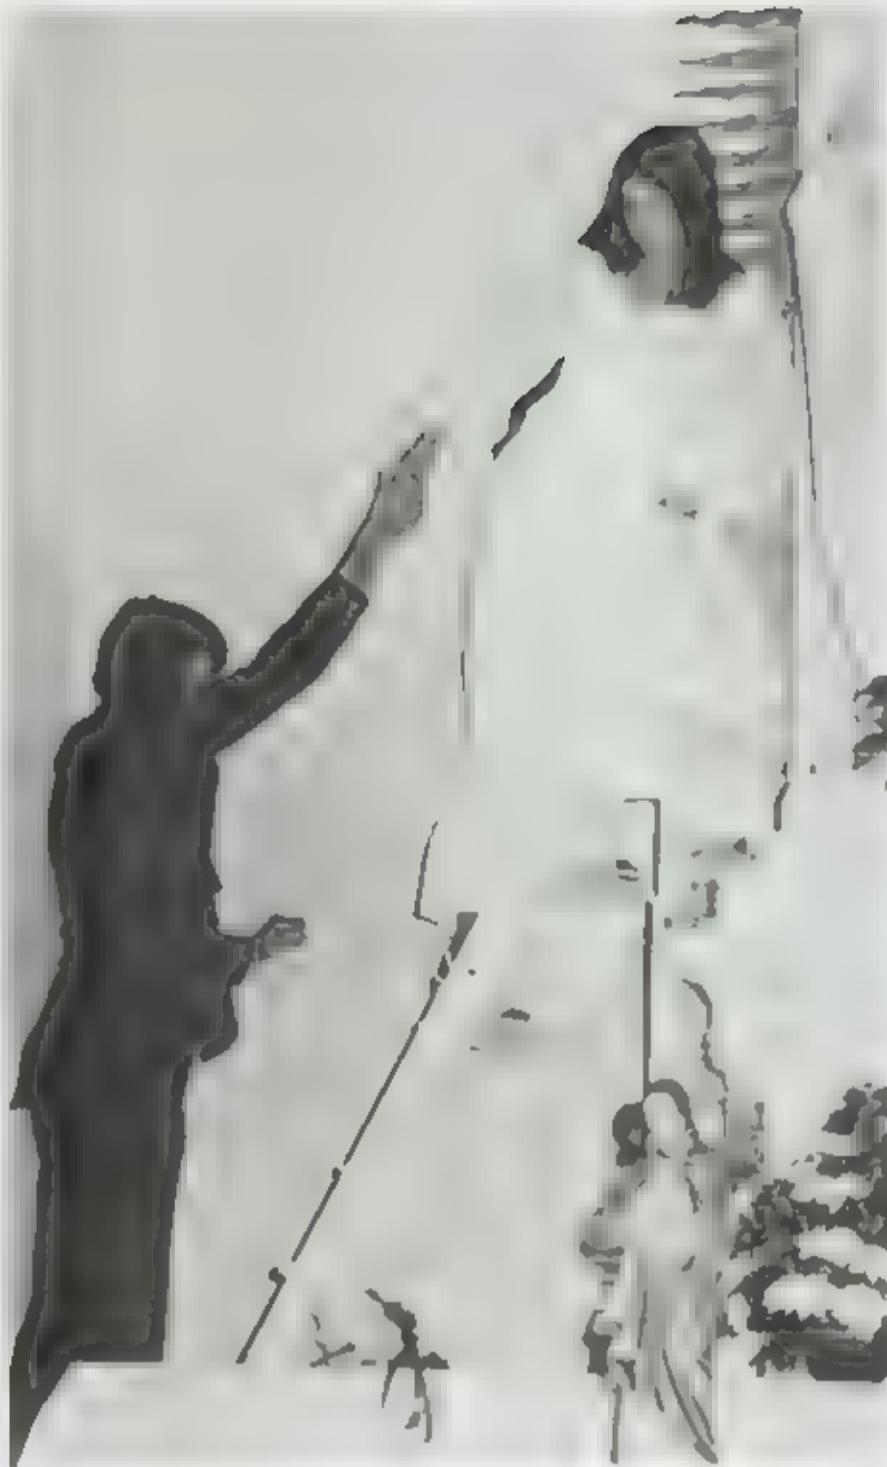

"We'll get by with a little help from our friends."

Junior Class Officers

This year proved to be one of excitement, honors, and hard work for the class of '75. Finally earning the title of "upperclassmen", they continued to make a name for themselves throughout the year.

Responsible in part for this remarkably successful year were the Junior officers. They are Vice-President Sue Fronczak, Secretary Sharon LeBlanc, Treasurer Kerry Keller, and the leader of the pack, President Barb Shoemaker. They were under the guiding hand of Sr. Bernard Marie.

With this determined quartet leading the way, the Juniors awaited the arrival of their school rings, and sponsored a sock hop, which was enjoyed by all who attended. Keep in mind that this group made "Turtles" and "Tyrolean Mints" household words! The profits gained from the candy sale were used to finance class expenses, especially the costs involved in the senior breakfast.

The spirited class of '75 not only got off to a good start, but kept up the hard work throughout the course of the year.

These five juniors were designated as delegates and alternates to the Buckeye Girls' and Boys' State Program. FROM LEFT TO RIGHT, Sharon LeBlanc, Bill Katsounis, and Joe Switzer stood by as alternates, while Kevin Sever and Barb Shoemaker did the actual travelling to Ashland College and Capitol University respectively. This program is run by establishing a mock state government, and the delegates were permitted to run for a state office, or an office of their individual city. It was a difficult task to choose only two students, because the junior class is composed of such competitive and highly qualified individuals. We think that a wise choice was made in selecting Barb Shoemaker and Kevin Sever to go to Girls' and Boys' State.

The class of '76 began their sophomore year by selecting their class officers. They chose Billy Brooks to serve as their fearless President. Fellow officers were: Annette Contra, Treasurer; Leslie Byme, Secretary; and Mary Kerrigan, Vice-President. Mr. Straney, their class advisor, guided the officers and class through a memorable, successful year.

During the 73-74 school year, the class of '76 sponsored a profitable car wash. The success was due to the number of devoted classmates who turned out to scrub cars. Work was followed closely by recreation, and the sophs planned a "different" assembly for the entire student body to enjoy, by booking Malabar's Jazz Band. The 76er's also produced the winning team that participated in the student-faculty volleyball game.

United not only as classmates, but as friends, the sophomores witnessed a fantastic year.

Class Leaders

The leadership of the freshman class fell into the hands of Theresa Brown, President; Laura Byme, Secretary; Mary Chirico, Vice-President; and Nancy Frasz, Treasurer. They accepted their roles with the certain knowledge that their tasks would be difficult and demanding. Leading a class into high school is no easy job! Ask any officer. They sponsored activities which helped the freshmen identify with the rest of the school. Mrs. Grace Kmetz was there as advisor to provide occasional suggestions and thoughtful advice. Concerned, dedicated officers are an asset to any class, and the freshmen can certainly boast of theirs.

With a 2 record finish, we knew that the 6th place finish in A state group is this season. Despite losing in the District final to Central, the Spartans never gave in until the final buzz. Losing only five seniors, the Spartans will have another powerhouse team to confront their opponents and gain another state title birth.

Despite a somewhat short to segment trail the 73-74 season, a special tribute must go out to all who were involved in gaining the Number One State in the state.

Our thanks to the coaches, parents, fans, and scouts who displayed a tremendous amount of energy, city pride, and loyalty throughout the year. We also thank the Board of Education for their support throughout the year.

We thank each of the athletes of the season and their parents. It was a pleasure to see them practice every technique. However, now that most of the team do not have high school, I wonder what will happen. But, St. Pete's is still here to stay. We will be as individuals and as a team. That is less only start the next season a little early. Good luck to the Class of 1975. Good luck next year!

Injury riddled Joe Miragliotta goes in for the score.

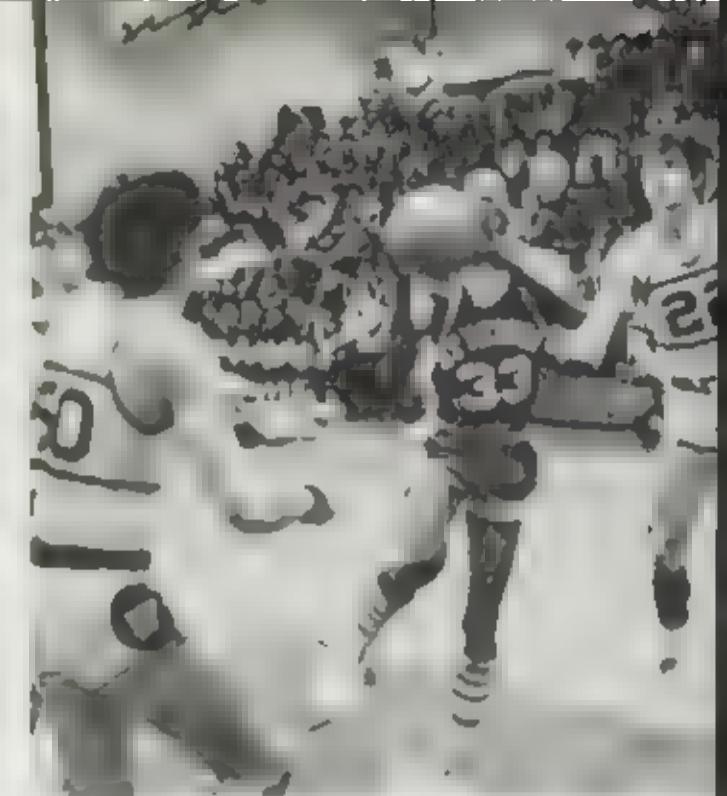

Ron Schaub gave the Spartans an added scoring punch with his accurate shooting ability.

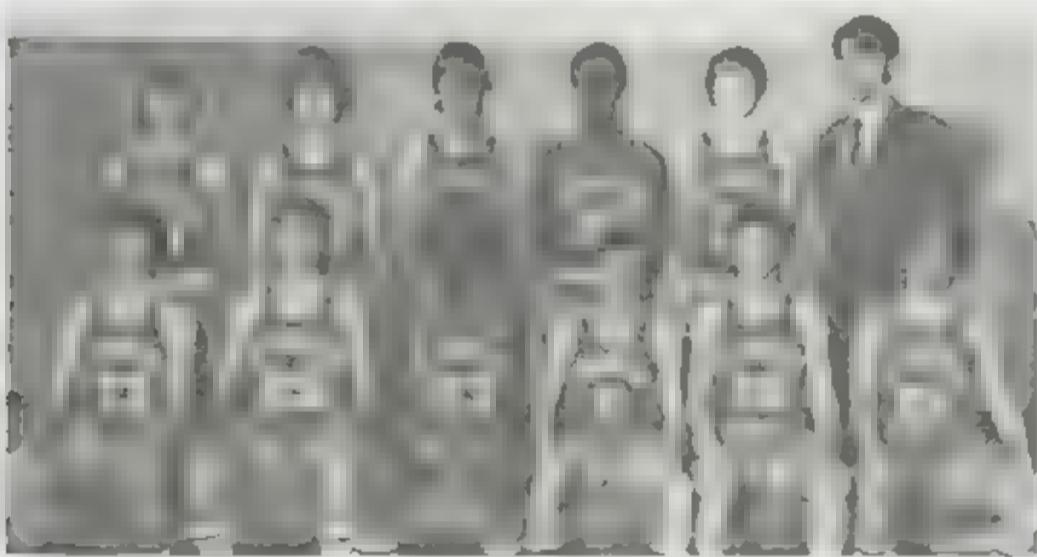

Greg Givens, Spartan All-Ohioan, out-leaps South Central's Player of the Year, Tom Kramb.

Leading the 1973-74 Freshmen team were 12 devoted players, who will help the rebuilding of the varsity.

Included on the Freshmen squad were Dave Lemming, Michael Demyan, and Art Varga, who became the team leaders.

After four years of existence the St. Peter's wrestlers have progressed from a scratch team to one of the highest performing teams statewide. This past season the grapplers held their heads high. By the end of the year the Spartans compiled a record of 5-6 with four of the five wins coming in the last half of the season. The record was not as outstanding as last year's due to the general circumstance of graduation.

The Spartans lost eight highly experienced men out of 13 with only four returnees. Those boys replacing last year's seniors did not lack either grueling desire and willingness to work and win but the one vital tool of any sport, "experience."

That great desire of tradition and acquired experience prevailed in the latter part of the season and throughout the tournament. The sectionals were hit hard with the traditional Spartan vigor. Although many of the grapplers were put out the first day, five wrestlers placed and went on to districts. There were no first place victors for the Spar-

ns. Capturing second place honors were John Paone (112), Ed Armstrong (145), and Mike Glaze (HVT). There was only one person to come through the consolation bracket. That was Tom Lowery (126).

District competition became a bit rocky. Lowery, Lengenza, and Glaze lost their first matches. Armstrong held on until his third round when eliminated. Paone was victorious the first day of districts, but fell to defeat in the second. In the consolations John acquired a fourth place standing qualifying him for State competition.

At State, John performed well but unfortunately didn't place high. He took eighth place with an outstanding performance.

The team is proud of John and all the others who represented the Spartans so well. Special thanks go to all the fans, students and especially to Coach Castle and Coach Shley for their time and talents which helped mold another team that was recognized statewide.

Grappling Machine Rolls Into Action

Grapplers in Season Premire

Always on top, John Paone, state contender, shows his ready position against Johnathan Alder.

In his typical form, Mike Glaze lures his opponent to a pin for the Spartan grapplers.

Filling in at 185, Robin Jakubick, gave a fine showing in his first year on the team as a senior.

Don't be amazed at sophomore Greg Smith, for he usually gained strength and composure to add points for a victory.

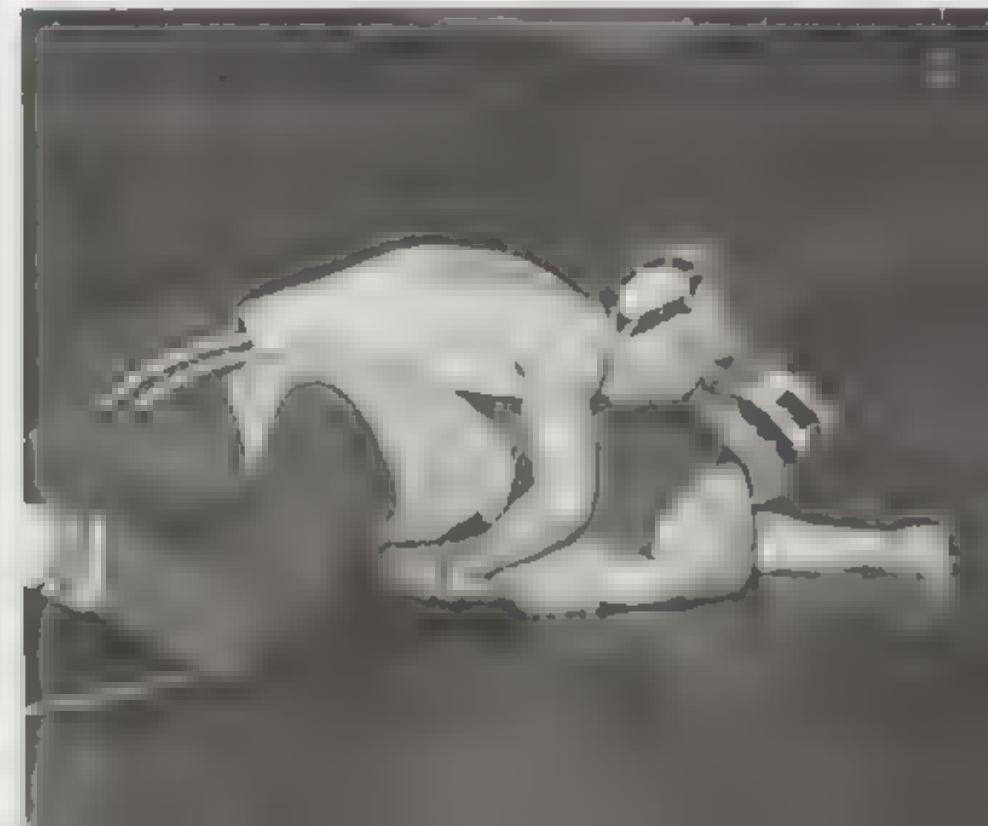

Takedown Time for Reserve

The Reserve Wrestlers finished on the winning side with a 4 and 3 slate, sing primarily Freshmen wrestlers. Standouts were Mike Ashby (7-0), followed by Ray LaBarber, Dave Legenza, Mike Schemaker, and Rick Waters.

Here We Go, Spartans, Here We Go!

The duties of the cheerleaders included far more than merely planning spirit assemblies and cheering at games. Laura Kleshinski, Anne Rath, Charlene Schmidt, and Sue Spognardi are one peg above the frosh and just a "little bit" below the Varsity. Freshman cheerleading has to be one of the highlights of your first year in high school, especially if you're Laura Byme, Mary Chirico, Sue Slack, or Patty Augustine! These four girls agree that rooting for a winning team is a thrilling experience. Dreams of "going to state" are often kindled this first year.

Tradition Is the Name of the Game

Tradition is the name of the game with the coaches at St. Pete's, the winning tradition. It started back in 1958 with the man located in the center, Robert Frye. His days of coaching finally came to golf and full time Athletic director.

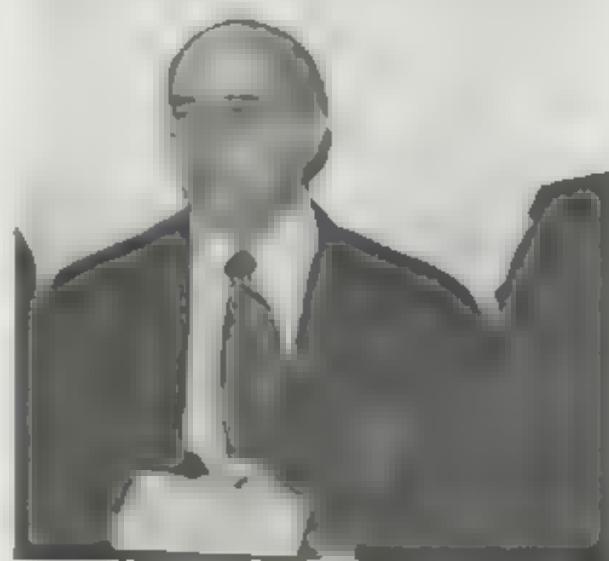

In the left hand corner are Ron Barbo and Pat Maurer who both coach varsity and reserve basketball. Coach Maurer also directs the varsity baseballers.

In the right hand corner are the varsity and reserve wrestling coaches, Don Castle and Russ Ashley. In addition to his varsity coaching of the grapplers Coach Castle is head tennis coach. A special thanks to Mr. Ashley for volunteering his time so freely when needed.

Also coaching the freshmen basketball team was Phil Hawk. In addition to his coaching he was the head scout for the varsity team and will be taking a new position as the head golf coach in the up coming season.

The picture of players on the page shows the outcome of these few but special men. Our thanks and congratulations to them for their fine seasons.

Student Council

The president thoughtfully addresses his followers.

Officers and advisor were ... (COUNTERCLOCKWISE FROM UPPER LEFT) Jane Gardner, Beth Kleshinski, Mr. Breitbiger, Robin Jakubick, and Andy Coleman.

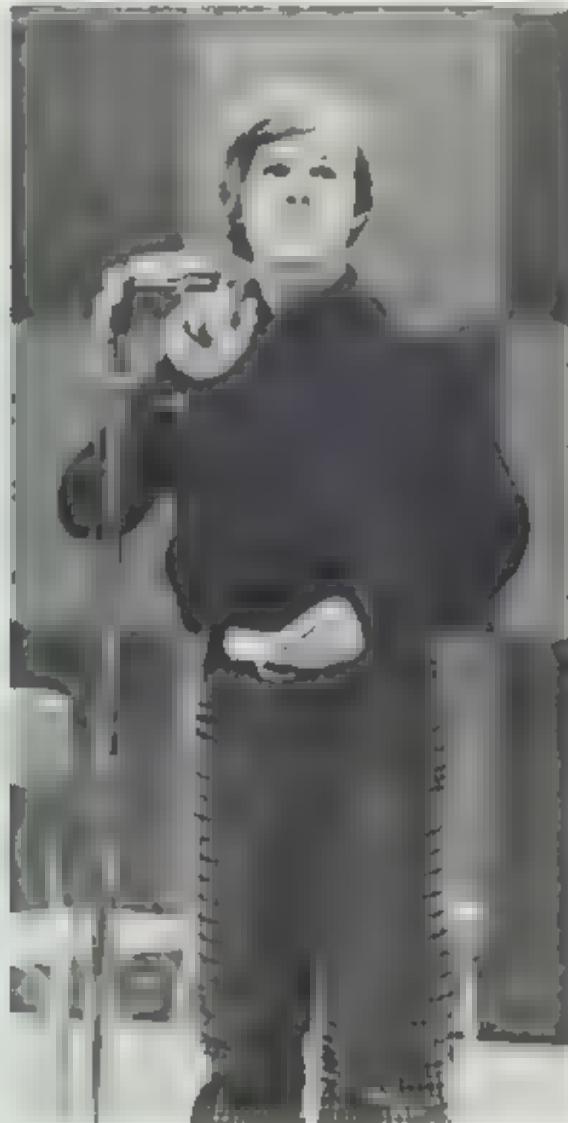

The officers review one of their many projects.

Student Council was composed of one advisor, four officers, 16 class officers, 14 homeroom representatives, and - most importantly - the entire student body. SC members will recall the intense arguments that occurred during the "Vards issue Discussions". When the topic was brought up before the whole school, it was discovered that a great number of people were concerned and wanted to help. Interest wasn't confined to SC members alone.

Spring Into Action

Andy waits for the unruly crowd to settle down. (It may take a while!)

Robins' "evil eye" was an effective disciplinary measure at times.

"I can't stop and talk right now. I have to go make announcements!"

With the hard work of all its members, Student Council successfully sponsored many activities, a few of which are the Slave Sale, Homecoming, the Student-Faculty Volleyball Game, and the Academic Banquet, which N.H.S. co-sponsored.

The enthusiasm and vigor of all the officers and home-room reps, and the patience and understanding of the moderator made all of the above efforts possible.

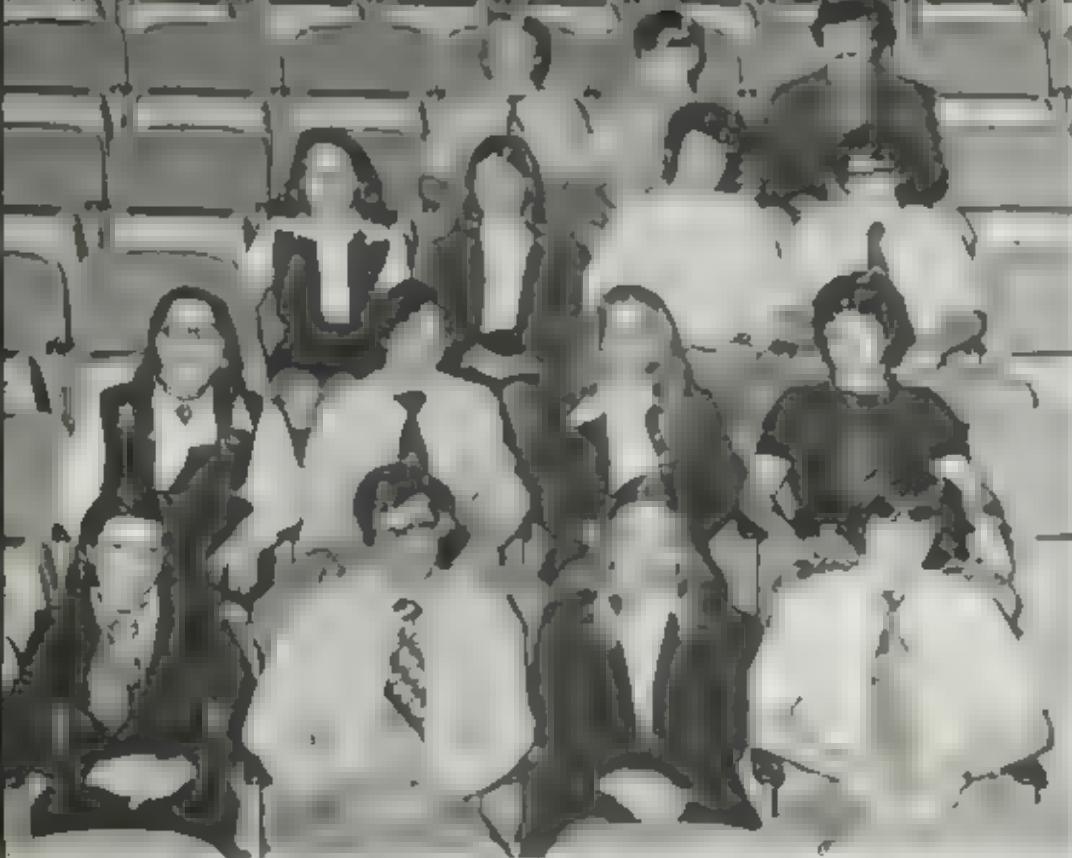

"Going, going, gone! At 4½¢!"

N.H.S. Brains

Although the Washington trip was the highlight of N.H.S. busy year, the Petrarchan branch of this organization must be recognized for the services it performed. This group sponsored the Student-of-the-Month program, co-sponsored the Academic Banquet, and helped the American Cancer Society raise money. Its members continually exemplified its fourfold purpose, to promote scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

The four N.H.S. officers have been awarded the front row seats.
ROW 1: Mary Kay Hornung, Brian Kleshinski, Debbie Boger, Rod
Jordan, ROW 2: Judy Bush, Jim Dillon, Cindy Powell, Joe Mira-gliotta, ROW 3: Kathy Renkar, Donna Berger, Mike Mulherin, Chris Jeager, ROW 4: Arnold Schmidt, Steve Henrich, Mr. Novak.

Junior member Jane Gardner seems quite reluctant to leave her cozy room in the "Y" to go sightseeing with the rest of the gang.

Led by Rod, the members of N.H.S. and their guests do their "Great Apes Routine" at the National Zoo in D.C.

Different people reacted to the N.H.S. Washington trip in very DIFFERENT ways, but all agreed it was "quite a trip"!!

Two Groups Express Concern Through Actions

The Liturgy Committee was responsible for all the school masses, penance services, and helped with Retreats. ROW 1 Bobbie Pitroff, Judy Bush, JoAnne Robison, Mary Massa. ROW 2: Theresa Walley, Father Steve, Barb Shoemaker. ROW 3: Brian Kleshinski, Mike Kurtz.

Red Cross advisors, Mary Risacher and Janell Demyan, are excused from school to work at the Bloodmobile.

Red Cross (ABOVE) was one organization which actually did something during the year. The 18 members (less at most meetings!) did the work of many. They baked cookies for the reformatory, assisted at the Bloodmobile, and sponsored the Fresh Fruit Drive. That project involved collecting, assembling, and distributing the baskets.

The Liturgy Committee (RIGHT) can boast a successful year. The eight members (including four guitarists) planned several Masses, including those for May Crowning, All Saints' Day, and Ascension Thursday. They also planned a penance service, modelled after Bergamo, which involved some original material by the members.

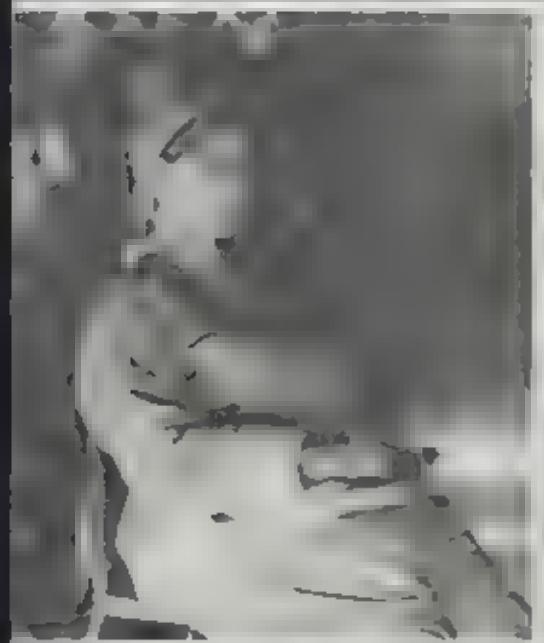

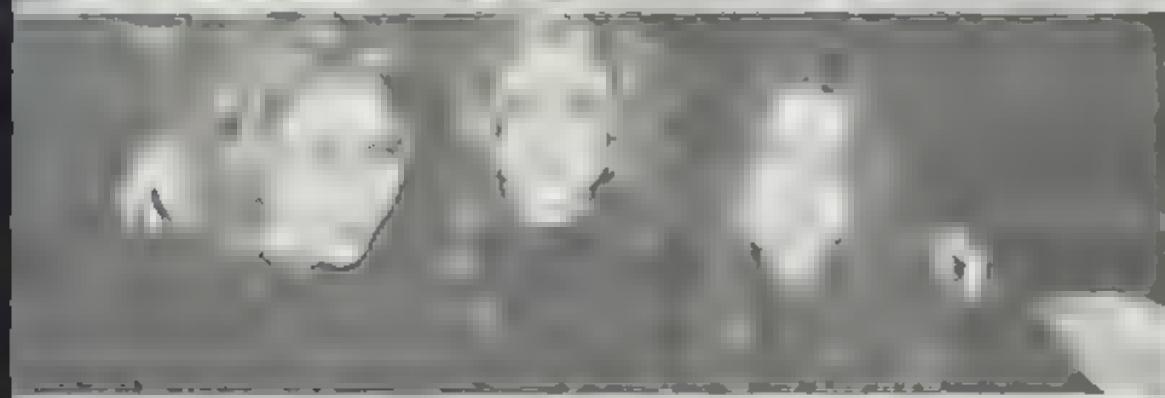

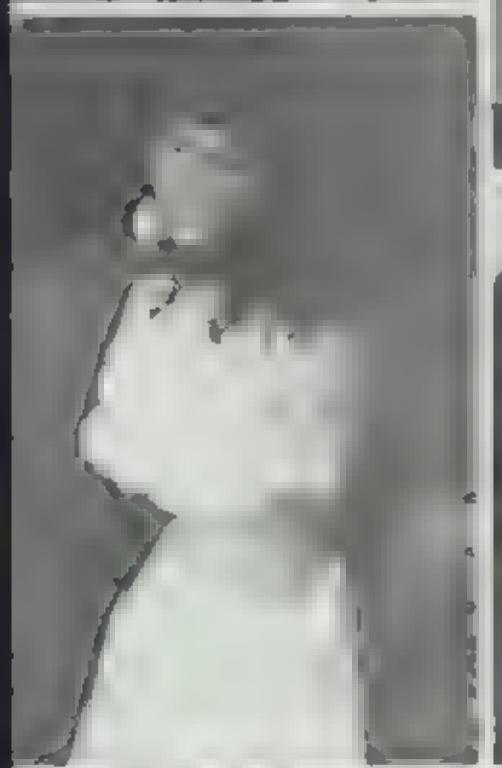

Exhibitions of talent given throughout the year by the members of Drama Club included the Variety Show, the Christmas Assembly, and the school play, You Can't Take It With You. All three performances were successful and presented competition and amusement for the actors. Practices never got out of control they went well under the guiding hand of Mrs. Judith Castle. She relied on students for suggestions, especially officers Judy Bush, Jane Gardner, Sue Fronczak, and Deb Jasinski.

Presenting St. Peter's Smoked and Cured HAMS

"Your performances aren't BORING, just relaxing!"

With Pen in Hand . . .

We refuse to write any copy for this page. The "Key News" and the Petrarchan have said it all.

Although the clubs for the future Pastuers and Spasskies have their merit, the Key and Yearbook staff is especially grateful for the Photo Club. Without their skill in the darkroom, dozens of pictures would never have been developed and enlarged. Veteran Terry Schmidt was responsible for taking nearly all the pictures used in this yearbook.

"N-B5/K-N1/N-R6ch/K-R1/B-Q5mate" Some secret code? No, it's chess talk. For further explanation, ask ROW 1: Steve Wuestoff, Bill Berlyak. ROW 2: Mr. Baloy, Bob Lardinalis. ROW 3: Jeff Krouse, Greg Colangelo.

The small size of the Science Club allowed the members to conduct interesting experiments and observations. Turned loose in the laboratory were ROW 1: Pat Sweeney, Herbert DarSantos. ROW 2: Sister Bernard Marie, Don Schemine, Cathy Gesing.

Responsible for the bulk of the volume and the originality at games both home and away were the mighty mouths of the Pep Club. ROW 1 Mary Massa, Jane Demyan, Judy Bush, JoAnne Robisen, Elaine Aldous, Sandy Cwens, Debbie Boger, Dettie Wasiski. ROW 2- Maria Morales, Shirley Robison, Patty Prendergast, Becky McFarland, Beth Scharosch, Barb Laug, Nancy Callahan, Sue Benikler. ROW 3 Connie Bauer, Julianne Voytko, Julie Haley, Debbie Laug, Carol Miller, Ann Rozic, Barb Zimmerman, Sharon Smith, Janet Press, ROW 4 Paul Tinian, Ginny Smith, Michelle O'Leary, Toni Zimmerman, Paula Wells, Kim White, Patty Hahn, Kathy Santellone, Tom Swilzer. ROW Georgeanne Garrett, Lucy Rendl, Carole Boisvert, Fran Kutzey, Carole Laser, Cindy May, Linda Wentz, Martha McHugh, Eileen Reilly. ROW 6 Kim Kowalski, Darcye Black, Catny Garrett, Shannon Wahl, Julie Miller, Debbie Hanson, Deb Walker, Betsy Gesing.

S-Section Combines Wit and Volume

Judy Bush, creator of many of the Pep Club's new and DIFFERENT cheers, accepts her Captain's Award.

Mrs. Roessler presents Kim Kowalski with her Co-Captain's Award at the winter Sports' Banquet.

Got Spirit? Let's Hear It!

Good times were inevitable as the pep club followed the basketball team through a successful season.

Traditional tournament travel was a highlighting factor of the year, but ended in sudden unhappiness when the team lost to South Central at Galion High School.

Among the "firsts" for the pep club were the sale of St. Peter's jackets to club members and students, and the dual leadership of Mrs. Roessler and Sister Linda.

Captain Judy Bush, originator of the many "F.A.B.O." cheers, provided for an organized club and furnished occasional entertainment. With the assistance of co-captain Kim Kowalski, organization was made much easier. Secretary-Treasurer Mary Risacher kept an eye on the books.

Rumblin' Rod Jordan often led the P-Section in slightly unorthodox cheers, and the S-Section joined in.

4-year members Becky McFarland and Lore Massey hurry to the pep club meeting.

"Everything You Do"

Monster Mash's "cast within a cast" spent as much time putting on makeup as acting!

With an enthusiastic cast of 27 seniors, 16 juniors, 12 sophomores, and 2 freshmen, "Variety '73" proved to be a great success and a truly enjoyable experience. The well-rehearsed and highly polished acts were both thought-provoking and entertaining. Director Judith Castle conducted rehearsals with a professional demand of near perfection, and all participants were eager to turn out the best show ever. If, indeed, reflections do tell all, the cast of 'Variety '73' can face the final curtain proudly.

Members of Drama Class donned Clown White and tights.

Active Students

Kris Switzer "checks I.D.'s" at Massa's farm film festival.

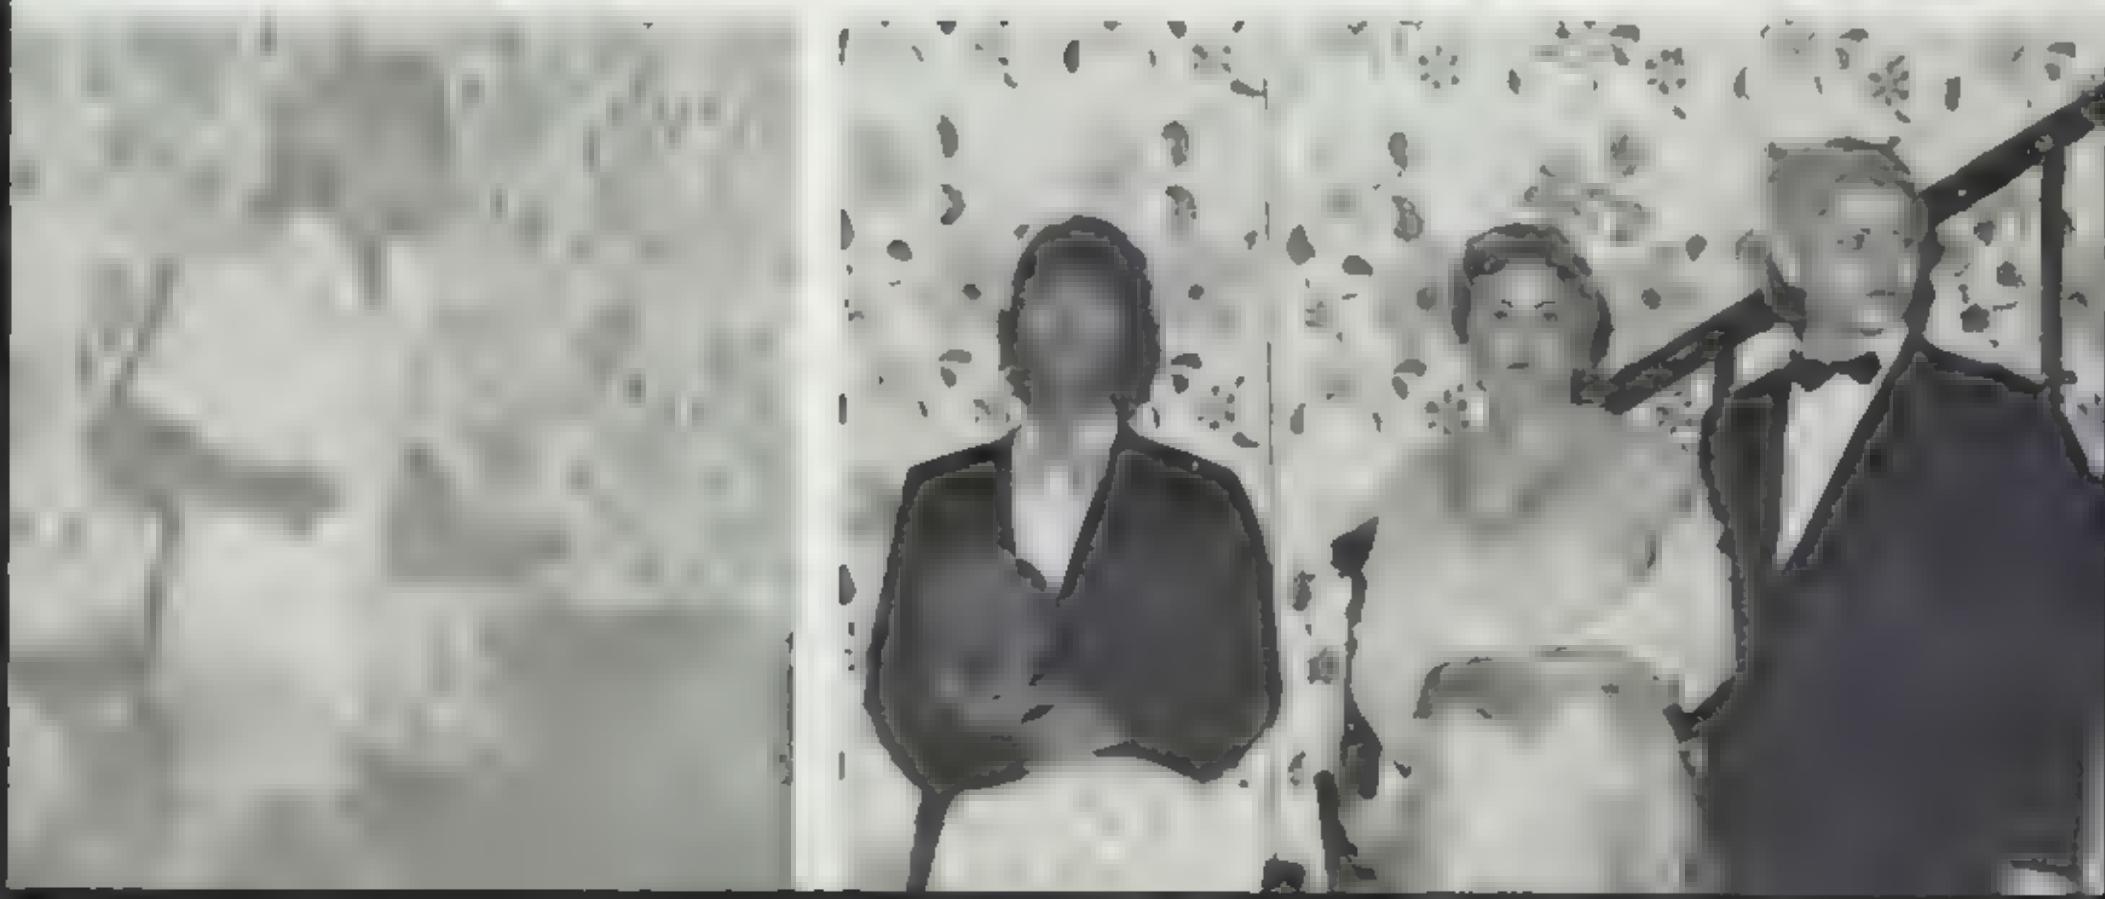

"You Can't Take It With You"

On May 11 and 12, a handful of high school students compiled their talents and from that effort came a very successful play. Between Speech, Drama and English classes, Judith Castle found the time to direct her cast to two fantastic performances. The play revolved around an old man who could not understand the complexities of the tax system, and thus refused to conform. The plot thickens as his "helpful" family unites to ward off unwanted visitors. The senior members of "You Can't Take It With You" were Lynn Fisher, Arnold Schmidt, Sue Berniller, Mary Risacher, Mary Rozic, Judy Bush, Rod Jordan, Julie Reese, Mike Kurtz and Robin Jakubick. Juniors included Tim Callahan, Doug Schnug, Jeff Krouse, and Joe Legenza. Sophomores were Bill Miller and Greg Colangelo. Freshmen cast members were Connie Bauer, Tony Rozic and Jim Schnug. Lighting, sound, and sets were handled beautifully, as was makeup. Alumnus Dan VonderEmbse returned to give a crash course in "Old Men's Makeup", while freshman Jean Finlayson specialized in "Japanese Features". Thanks to the efforts of all these people and more, "You Can't Take It With You" was a well-received, enjoyable play.

THE MASTERS

Dear readers (and those of you who can't read but like to look at the pictures),

The following is an excerpt from my soon-to-be-released memoirs, "The Making of a Yearbook, 1974" and its sequel, "The Breakdown of an Editor 1974".

This yearbook is for EVERYONE, even that certain soph who swore up and down that her picture wouldn't appear. (Remember the day they turned me loose with a camera? Hope you like the pic!).

For the remainder of you, I hope you find pictures of yourself scattered throughout the book. The only justifiable complaint I foresee is "The same people are in all the time!" That's because those people are the ones who do the most, and naturally get the most recognition.

The success or failure of a yearbook is dependent on many people. Since the 1974 Petrarchan is a success in my own unbiased estimation, I have a long line of thank-you's.

Terry Schmidt, for taking nearly all pictures;
Smuckers' and Buell-Kraft for enlarging stacks of pictures;
Matthew Mark Remington O'Hail III, for developing a stack;
Mr. Castle for being helpful, witty, patient, demanding, and always there;
Our yearbook representative, Mr. Earl Parks, for providing on-the-job training;

Fellow staffers Pitter, Jeff, Mary, Debbie, Lisa, and Pat for doing great jobs and minimizing the work cut out for the editors;

The students, for hamming it up every time they saw Terry and his trusty camera (half of the time it didn't even have film, you clowns!);

My chief sidekick, Mary Kay "Brain" Hornung, who was just an unbelievably even-tempered person to work with (at least, that's what she contends!). Although her incessant humming was offpitch at times, she provided the spark that was needed to make our book a real winner;

My final debt of gratitude goes to the makers of No-Doz, without whose miraculous product 80 pages of the book could not have been completed in seven hours straight.

Looking back over this book in later years, certain historic days will stand out in my mind; the day we lost all the junior pictures, and finally found them in a rusty coffee can in the Keyhole; the day the Scale-O-Graph died in the middle of a picture; and the memorable day that the majority of the staff contracted a strange disease and had to take off the rest of the year to recuperate!

The '73-'74 school year is gone, but hang on to this book and you have captured that one year. You have preserved memories both good and bad, experiences pleasant and painful. If, indeed, this is the last yearbook, we really went out in style.

Still in all, if asked to do it again, I would reply unhesitatingly:

"ARE YOU KIDDING???????"

Your dedicated (ha! the word is RELIEVED!!!) editor,

Jude Bush

Dear Readers,

Although Judy and I worked the entire summer on this "masterpiece", I would do it all over again. Impartially speaking, this is one of St. Peter's best yearbooks.

This yearbook is creative in the use of pictures and the writing of copy. If anyone can find a repeated picture, we'll give them a free yearbook. Be the first one to call Fairbanks, Alaska, 437-2831, first igloo on the right.

I'd like to thank Judy, my co-editor, and Mr. Castle, our advisor. I would also like to thank those members of the staff who sacrificed their time to help. I would like to thank my parents for usage of their car. A special thanks goes to Dunkin' Donuts and the DQ for the treats they provided during Publications.

And thank you, readers, for appreciating this book.

Sincerely,
Mary Kay Hornung
